The Cost of Commitment

Luke 9: 51-62; 18:31-34

Many of you have studied history and are well aware of the so called Bataan Death March. These Japanese soldiers brutally treated and killed approximately 10,000 men- 1,000 of them Americans. Many were stabbed with a bayonet beaten and beheaded. All were starved and given little or no medical treatment. It was a horrible experience.

Jesus also had a “death march” He knew he would be horribly treated and be crucified, yet He was determined to complete it in order to fulfill His divine purpose of redemption.

Let’s look at Jesus’ commitment and consider His call to commitment.

- I. Jesus Ultimate Purpose (9:51-56)

- II. Jesus’ Unmistakable Call (9:57-62)

- III. Jesus’ Undeniable Obedience (18:31-34)

- IV Jesus’ Unwavering Invitation.

There comes a time in every believer’s life that he must make a decision to fully follow Christ. To do so will cost. Are you willing to surrender everything to follow him? Maybe today is the day to say “yes” to the call to commitment.
